The Chinese character is the source of Eastern Asia [3]. But Park et al., thought that ancient Korean people -Maeg people- has made both Chinese characters and the Great masterpiece, Tcheonzamun [4-6]. And it was known that Tcheonzamun has two hidden secret codes, the reason of using the hidden code might be that at that time Maeg people was ruled by the Chinese country and they wanted to escape the comprehension of the Chinese people [4-6]. The Maeg used Chinese character and they were able to understand the meaning, while the Chinese people did not know its meaning. It was the purpose of secret code. One is Korean language, the other is to delete same part of different Chinese characters in Tcheonzamun.
