Abstract: Dallet (1874) wrote that there are many differences between Chinese people and Korean people. Several researchers studied that there is deep relation between Persian language and Korean language (Park, et al., 2019; Kim and Park, 2022). And the present researcher tried to find the relation between the languages. The present researcher tried to find the similar pronunciation between Persian words and Korean words. The researcher used a Dictionary of Persian/French and French/Persian (Bau, 2008). And the present researcher compared the meanings between Persian language and Korean language. In this study, the number of Persian words is 10. The title is 'Are they similar or are they same origin, Persian language and Korean language? (0204-0214)'. The results obtained is described as follows. <number Persian word (its meaning) Korean word (its meaning in English)>. 0204 Ablah (idiot) A Bbulna! (Oh, I am angry!) 0205 Taqallob (fraud, trick) Ddaeqallo! (It is only in apparent situation.) 0206-1 Metshala (It does not move!) Metchila!
